Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri Rakesh Thapliyal learned counsel for the applicant and Sri H.C. Pandey learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. It has been alleged that the two cheques were stolen by the applicant, by which he committed a forgery of Rs.1,04,000/-. The learned counsel for the applicant contended that there is a presumption. If the cheques have been signed by any person, it is presumption that it would have been duly filled by the person, who had signed the cheques. The prosecution has not stated specifically as to whether these cheques were already signed or not. Considering the facts, totality and circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the C.J.M. concerned.
